

Arthur L. Flagg

Art started a 30 year homebuilding career in 1979. He has held nearly every position in the industry from customer service representative through construction management, sales and marketing and land acquisition and development. Art also served two terms as the chairman of the board of the Southern Arizona Homebuilders Association (SAHBA). He retired from homebuilding in 2008 as Senior Vice President of KB HOME Tucson.

Art currently serves on the boards of directors of the Southern Arizona Homebuilders Association; the Tucson Arizona Boy's Chorus and is a past member of the board of the Tucson Arizona Botanical Gardens, the Tucson Housing Foundation, CODAC Behavioral Health, the Citizens water advisory committee and the Pima County Board of Appeals. Art also serves as the Interim President of the Southern Arizona Home Builders Association (SAHBA) while a new, permanent President is recruited.
